Naval Hospital Charleston

CAPT Susan A. Widhalm, NC, USN

14 Oct 03

Force Health Protection

"…a strategy that describes the integrated preventive and clinical programs that are designed to protect the "total force"

THE FOUR PILLARS

- Fit and Healthy Force
- Protection from Hazards

  Shore and Deployed
- Quality Casualty Care
- TRICARE For Life

Readiness

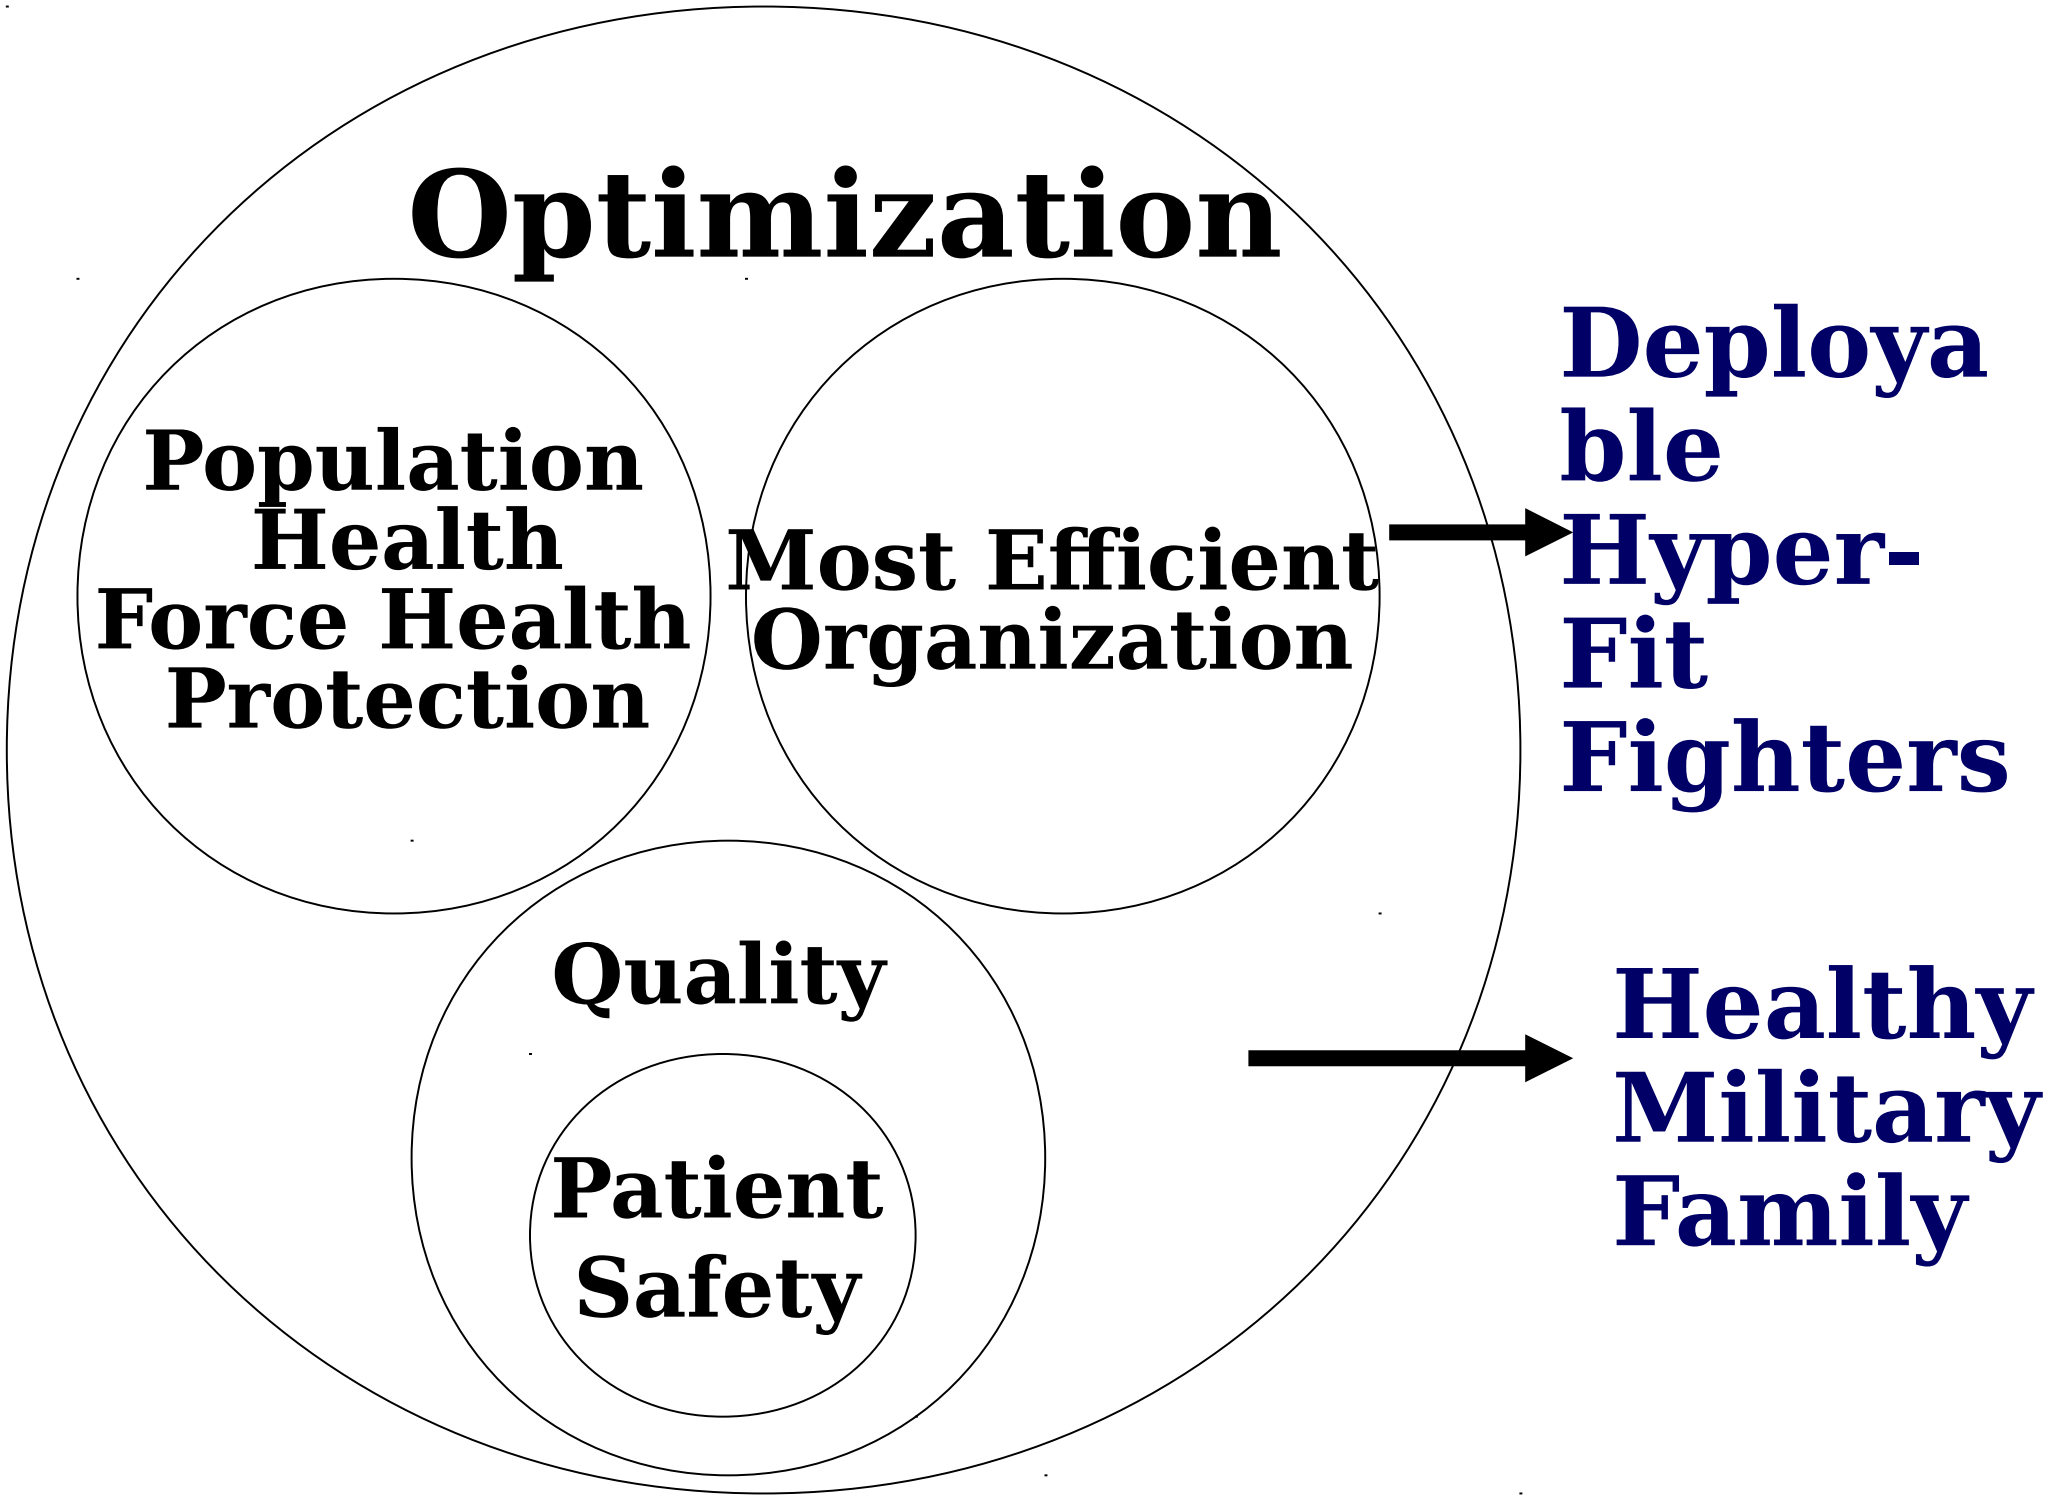
- Individual Medical Readiness (IMR)
  - Staff education
- Deployable Platforms – Mobilization Readiness
  - Refined process
  - Integrated network training
- Command Readiness – Homeland Defense
  - AT/FP Measures
  - Actively integrating  w/ regional & local assets
  - Vulnerability assessment



Optimization
Population Health
Force Health Protection
Most Efficient Organization
Quality
Patient Safety
Deployable Hyper-Fit Fighters
Healthy Military Family

Integration

- Service Support
- Telemedicine
- E-Health
- DoD/VA Sharing
- MEDRUP

Challenges

- Preparing for the Next Generation of TRICARE Contracts
- MultiService Market
- Coding/Super bills/Data Quality
- Planning for MILCON

  - HCRA/VA